Saturday, September 9 1704

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Sept. 9.

Rome, August 16.

Sunday last being the Feast of St. Lawrence, the Pope went to Mass to the Church of that Name, being invited by Cardinal Ottoboni, who officiated in Person. The Queen Dowager of Poland and several Cardinals were present likewise at this Solemnity. Cardinal Ottoboni as Protector of the said Church, and Vice Chancellor of the Holy See, gave a splendid Entertainment to the latter; and sent the Pope a noble Present of Wild-Fowl, Fish, and Fruit. 'Tis confidently reported that Cardinal Bouillon is restor'd to the King of France's Favour, by the Pope's Mediation; and that he will shortly come hither to act as Dean of the Sacred College; And some of his Servants are looking out for a commodious Palace for him. The Differences between this Court and those of Vienna, Savoy, and Naples, continue. The 11th instant, the Pope held an Extraordinary Congregation of Cardinals, to consider of the Answer return'd by the Court of France, to a Letter written by his Holiness, touching the Affair of the Expulsion of the Imperialists out of the Ferrareze; but we cannot learn yet what was resolv'd upon in that Congregation. The Treasurer of the Apostolical Chamber, Signior Corsini, has acquainted the Pope by an Express, that he is arriv'd at the Place near Ferrara whither he was order'd to repair to take Informations of the Proceedings of Count Paulucci, and the other Officers of his Holiness's Troops in the Affair abovemention'd, and has begun already to take Informations; but the Emperor has given the Pope to understand, that he is not to be satisfied so cheaply; and 'tis fear'd this Difference between the two Courts may produce bad Consequences, the more because 'tis certain the Emperor sent back seal'd the Letter his Holiness wrote to him (to clear himself from having had any concern in that Business,) without opening it. The 12th Cardinal Fournbin having receiv'd Advice by an Express from the Duke of Vendome, that the Marshal de Tallard had pass'd the Black Forrest with his Army, and had join'd the Elector of Bavaria without meeting any Opposition; his Eminency went immediately and communicated the News to the Pope, who was then at his Devotions in the Church of our Lady of Trastevere: The Cardinal communicated this News to the Queen Dowager of Poland likewise; And the French and their Adherents, express a mighty Joy at this Junction, promising themselves no less than an entire Defeat of the Army of the Allies that has entered Bavaria.

From the Paris Gazette, dated August 30.

Rome, August 5. The 31st of last Month the Duke of Modena had a long Audience of the Pope, to return him Thanks for the good Offices he has done him to the two Crowns. The Ambassador of Spain had Audience of his Holiness the same day, and gave him an Account of the Instructions his Catholick Majesty has sent to Naples, for putting an End, in such a Manner as may satisfy his Holiness, to the Contentions that are still on foot, about the Ecclesiastical Immunities. 'Tis reported that in order thereunto, one of the Archbishops of that Kingdom, and two of the chiefest Lawyers, will be deputed hither to negotiate this Affair.

From the Rotterdam Gazette, dated Sept. 4 & 8.

Madrid, Aug. 15 & 20. A Courier is arriv'd here from Carthagena, with Advice, that all the Gallies are put out of that Port, to joyn the Count de Tholouse. The 10th the King receiv'd Advice, that the Enemy had taken Gibraltar; whereupon a Council of State met that Night, in which it was resolv'd that the Marquis of Villadarias should march with 8000 Men and endeavour to retake it. The next day Monsieur Renaud, Ingenier General, went Post from hence, being to be employ'd in this Enterprize. The Envoy of Bavaria having made pressing Instances for a Sum of Money for the Elector his Master, it has been resolv'd to remit 100000 Crowns to him. Monsieur Orri set out Post from hence yesterday for Paris. The King's Departure from hence to go to the Army in order to take the Field again, is put off to the end of next Month; and People begin to doubt his Majesty will not go thither at all this Year, as well because of the Difficulty he finds of being supply'd with Money, as because the Troops are very much weaken'd by Desertion and Sicknes. The Parish Priests of Barcarota who proclaim'd the Archduke King of Spain, have since repair'd to Badajoz, and having represented to the General of the Troops in those Parts, that what they did they were constrain'd to do to save their Lives and Estates, have renew'd their Oath of Fidelity to King Philip V. The 15th being the Festival of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin, the King was seiz'd with a kind of Collick, which his Physicians attribute to the cool Liquors his Majesty has drauk this excessive hot Weather; but upon his taking some Medicines they prescrib'd him, this Indisposition went off again, and he is now perfectly well. The Duke of Gramont, and the Archbishop of Seville, two of the King's chief Councillors, cannot agree together; and the latter has desir'd Leave of the King to retire from Court to his Archiepiscopal Palace at Seville; but the King has refus'd him, telling him he has occasion for his Service, and cannot spare him from Court. Two Regiments of the King's Guards, commanded by the Count d'Aguilar and the Duke d'Havre, which are quarter'd in the Neighbourhood of this City, have receiv'd Orders to march to Andalusia. The 19th at 9 in the Morning a Council of State and War was call'd, which did not break up till 4 in the Afternoon. Among other things it was resolv'd in this Council, that the Governour of Gibraltar should be taken into Custody, in order to be tried for not having done his Duty in the Defence of that Place. He had sent an Officer hither with Letters for the King, in which he complains that no Succours were sent to him in time, notwithstanding he wrote for Help in pressing pressing Terms to the Marquess de Canales as soon as the Enemies Fleet came to the Streights Mouth, and told the Merquess they had form'd a Design to attack him. Orders are given for supplying Ceuta well with Provisions, and what was bought up for victualling the Galleons, will be sent thither forthwith, and other Stores will be bought afterwards for the Galleons.
